

REMARKS

Applicant thanks the Examiner for discussing this application with the undersigned on May 17, 2006. The distinctions between the claims and the cited art were discussed. The Examiner requested that the claims be rewritten to clarify the relationship between the first and second portions of water. The claims have been amended accordingly; Applicant submits that the scope of the claims are not changed by this amendment.

Applicant respectfully submits that the claims are in condition for allowance and requests a notice to that effect.

Please charge any fees associated with this filing, or apply any credits, to our Deposit Account No. 03-1721.

Respectfully submitted,
